ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 20 .- A despatch to the Bourse Gazette from Mukden, dated Oct. 19, says that on Oct. 18 a detachment of the Russian vanguard on the west front surrounded a Japanese battalion and compelled

The suspension of operations below Mukden continues. It is hinted in my tary circles that the next developments should be looked for eastward, but whether on the part of the Japanese or Russians is not revealed.

No news has reached the War Office of the reported annihilation of Russian battailon while recrossing the Taitse River.

BAD ROADS HAMPER TROOPS.

A despatch from Gen. Sakharoff, dated last night, reports that all was quiet along the front yesterday, and that in spite of the soggy condition of the country roads, which are described as seas of mud, the Russian scouts continue to show great enterprise in examining the Japanese positions.

A detachment of 200 Cossacks Tuesday night reconnoitered the Japanes left southwestward along a line extending westward from the railroad where it crosses the Schill River, through the villages of Haltsantal, Tadousampu and Sandepu, the latter fifteen miles west of the railroad.

The Japanese sentinels fired and retired as the Cossacks rode rapidly plong the line, but near Sandepu the Cossacks unexpectedly ran into a goodsized Japanese force with machine guns.

The Japanese opened a murderous fire on the Russians, killing many horses and mortally wounding Capt. Turgenieff, but all the Cossacks suc eded in getting away. Not one was killed on the field.

The War Office is now disposed to believe that the Tokio report of the abbing given to Gen. Yamada's Brigade is the Japanese version of the capture of Lone Tree Hill, nicely turned to minimize its-importance. The reports that Gens. Rennenkampff and Meyendorff are wounded are denied. The former's Chief of Staff, Col. Rossisky, was wounded.

Several other correspondents telegraph that operations have been susing to the rain. They say the armies are confr across the Shakhe River, and add that nothing important is expected for several days.

REPORT OF REAR GUARD FIGHT.

The Russkoe Slovo's correspondent says a rear guard engagement has occurred eastward, but he gives no details. Possibly the correspondent reters to the report from Tokio of the Taitse River engagement.

Additional details of the capture of Lone Tree Hill bestow much credit on Col. Baskoff, of the Thirty-sixth Rifle Regiment, who was leading one of the storming parties. Finding that his men were giving way he seized the regimental colors and dashed forward towards the Japanese trenches.

Blaze in Bedding Manufactory of W. H. Robertson in Brooklyn Causes a Rush for the Stairway, Where They Struggled to Get to the Street.

RESCUED FROM DANGER BY FIREMEN AND POLICE

Only the Discipline of the Fire Drill Prevented a Dreadful Loss of Life-There Was Great Alarm Among Employees in an Adjoining Building.

That great loss of life may be prevented in training factory employees n the discipline of a fire drill was proved at a big baze in the bedding manufactory of W. H. Robertson, on North Tenth street, between Berry street and Bedford avenue, Brooklyn, that started at 4 o'clock this afternoon, and for a time threatened to spread to adjoining plants.

The fire started in the cellor of the building and swept up through the upper floors of the five-story structure with great rapidity.
